IMMIGRANTS' LIST UNVEILS ITS SENATE ENDORSEMENT LIST

Washington—Immigrants' List—a bipartisan political action committee dedicated to immigration reform—this week unveiled its Senate endorsement list. The list is comprised of 13 Senate candidates (12 incumbents and one challenger) that IL believes will lead the fight for humane immigration reform.

Some of the names on the list are: Senator Michael Bennet, Senator Pat Leahy, Senator Patty Murray and Senate Majority Leader Harry Reid. Everyone on the list has recognized that the broken and dangerous status quo must be fixed immediately, and must be fixed in a comprehensive fashion.

“These are candidates that understand that the current immigration crisis is unsustainable,” said Amy Novick, Executive Director for Immigrants’ List. “We want the Senate to be the place where immigration reform was born, not where it died.”

Doing nothing is not a solution. Immigrants' List is a political action committee dedicated to electing members of Congress who support common-sense immigration reform.
